

Receiving Your Wings of Light Workshop

Saturday, June 23, 2018
9:00am - 12:00pm

Receiving Your Wings of Light is an invitation from the Universe to be in service to all living beings on Planet Earth. Our calling, beckoning, knowing, quickening is to shower more Divine Love, Healing Light, Grace, Peace, Compassion and Joy to those we encounter both physically and intuitively.

Receiving Your Wings of Light allows you to walk through another gateway that ignites brilliance, activates higher consciousness and awakens inner light. It is so joyful, delightful, happy, playful, fun and light-filled.

Who Should Attend This Workshop

If you have felt that your Wings are trying to sprout or open into full glory, or your wings may have temporarily closed and you are ready to awaken them this workshop is for you. Maybe you ready have your wings but you are being called because your heart is vibrating divine love and you are ready to support the expansion of light. The expansion of light is part of your purpose and service to humanity.
